

It was the first day of summer and Cub had just woken up.
'Good morning,' said Mum. 'Let's go and explore the forest.
Come on ...'

‘Why is it so hot?’
asked Cub.

‘So that we can splash in the cool water!’ giggled Mum.

And the sun shone down.

‘Why are the crickets so loud?’ asked Cub.

‘Because they want us to jump high like them!’ exclaimed Mum.

And the sun grew hazy.
